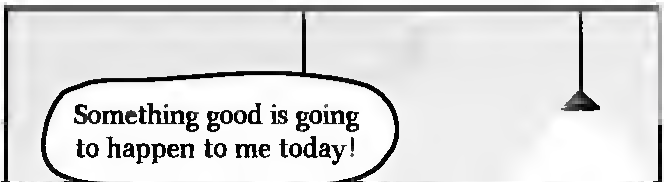
ROAR STREET JOURNAL

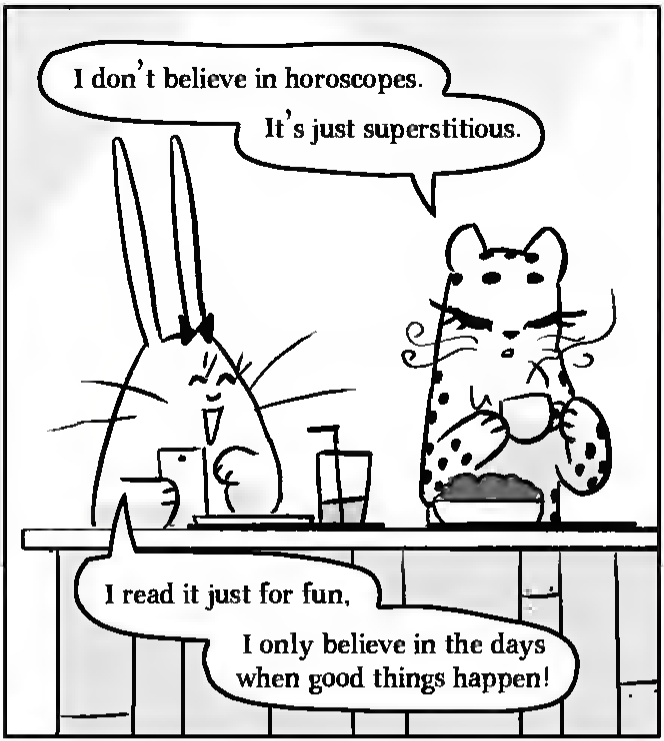
12 Signs of RSJ

Hey.
Hi Cheetah-B!



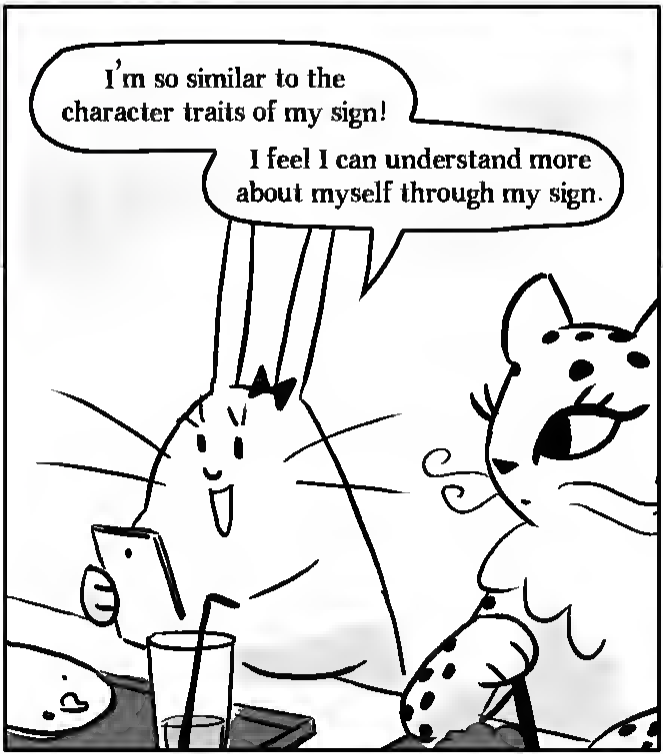
Something good is going to happen to me today!

What are you reading?
My daily horoscope!

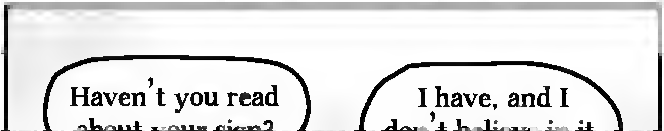


I don't believe in horoscopes.
It's just superstitious.
I read it just for fun,
I only believe in the days when good things happen!

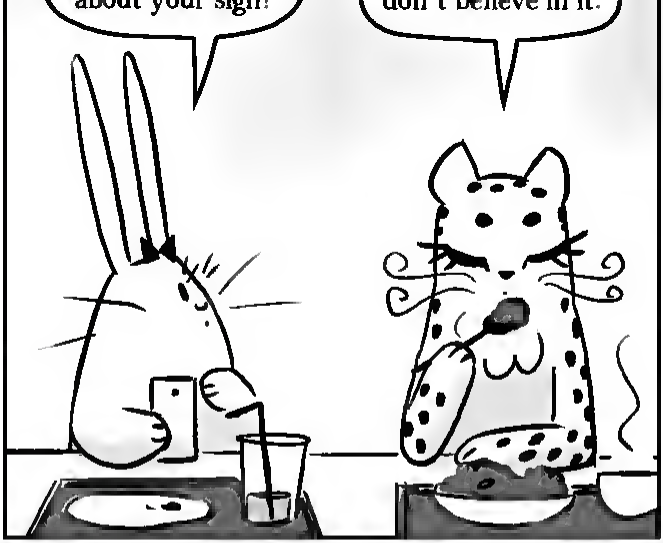
Don't you believe in the 12 zodiac signs?
We must be somehow related to the stars.
It's so romantic too!



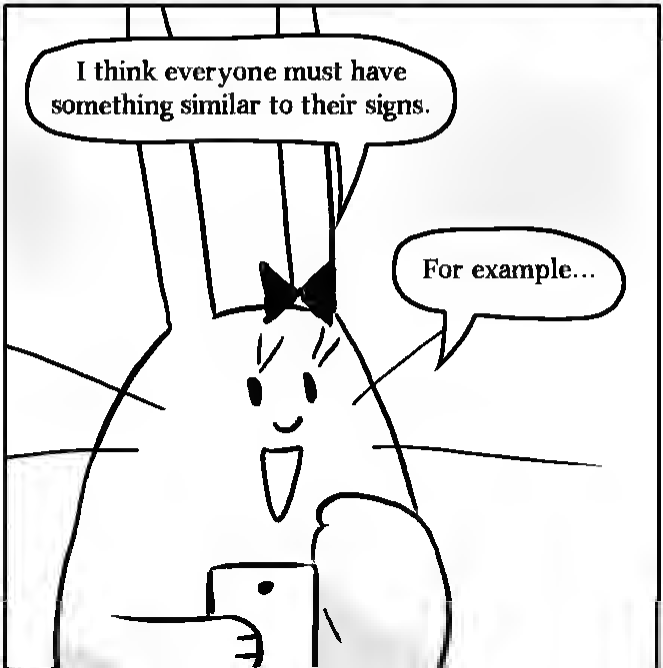
I'm so similar to the character traits of my sign!
I feel I can understand more about myself through my sign.



Haven't you read about your sign?
I have, and I



about your sign!
don't believe in it.



I think everyone must have something similar to their signs.
For example...

(Tiffany has excellent memory and remembers everyone's birthdays)

3.21 ~ 4.19

Mr. Pigkles is energetic, confident and quick-witted.

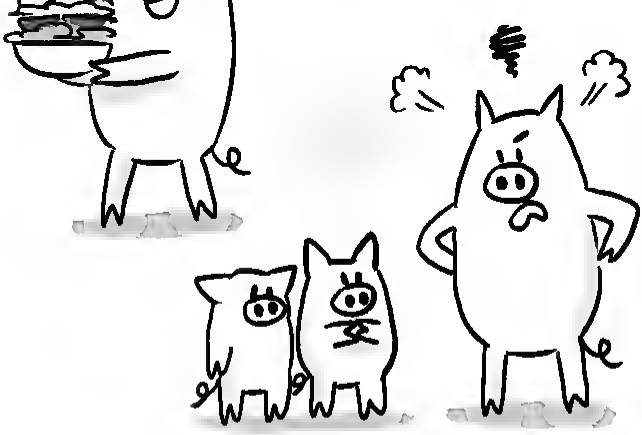
But sometimes, he is selfish, impatient and quick-tempered.



♉ TAURUS

4.20 ~ 5.20

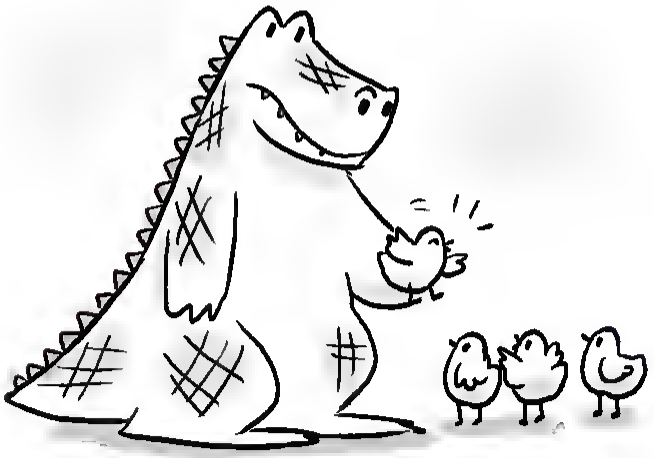
Although Allie looks scary, he is warmhearted, patient and reliable.

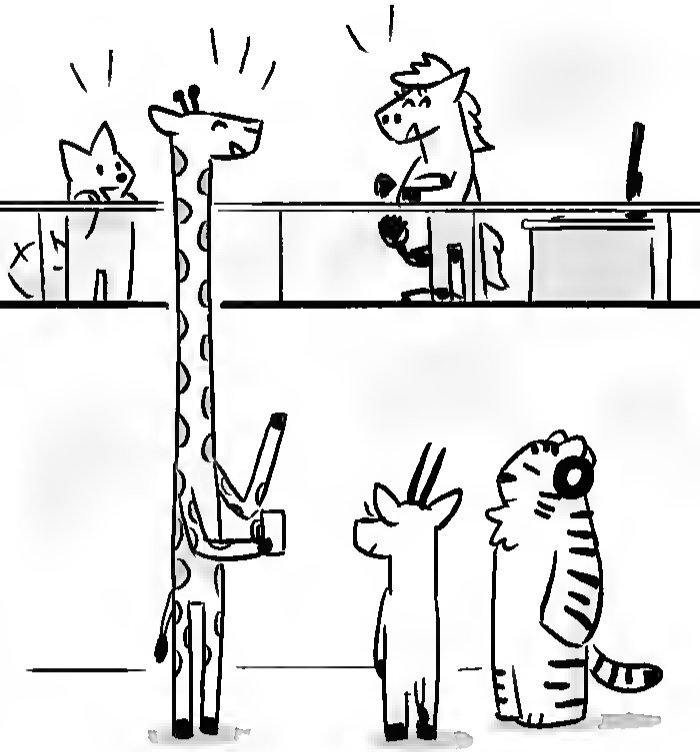


thanks Allie!
You're the guy!

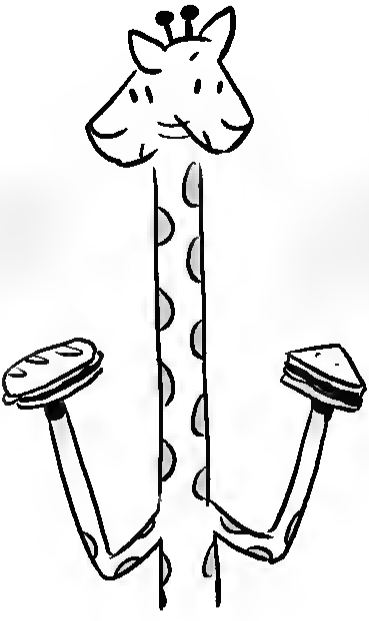
♊GEMINI

5.21 ~ 6.21

Giraffiel is cheerful and good at communicating with everyone in the building.



He is sometimes nervous and indecisive.



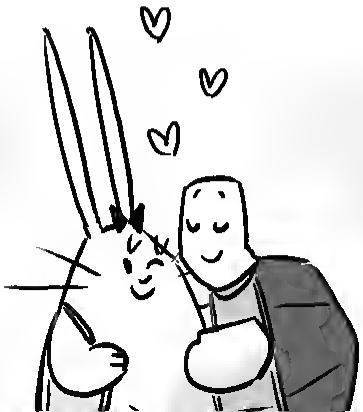
CANCER

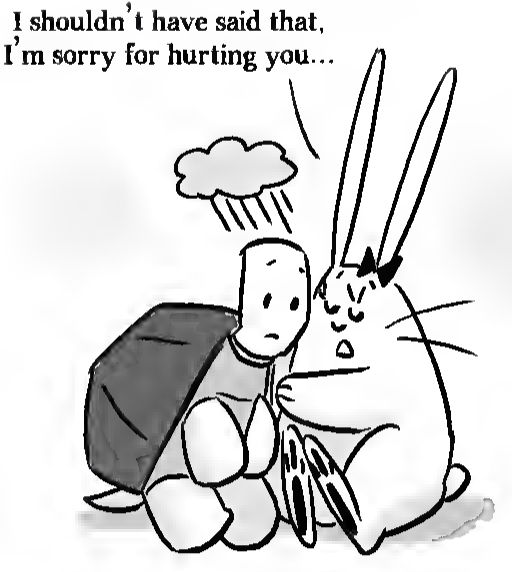
6.22 ~ 7.22

Anntelope is a loving, protective and sympathetic mother.

Tortis is also a very kind tortoise, whose sometimes a bit overemotional and clingy.

I knew him well!



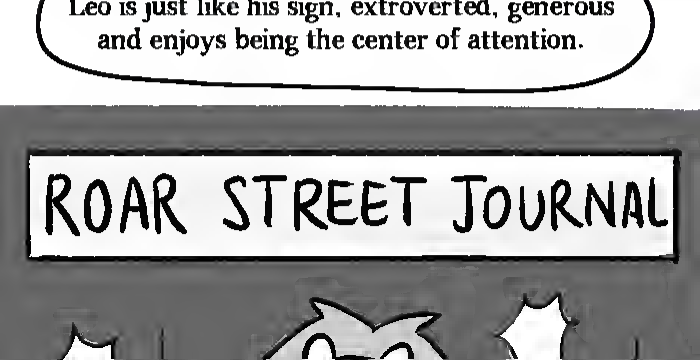


I shouldn't have said that,
I'm sorry for hurting you...

♌ LEO

7.23 ~ 8.22

Leo is just like his sign, extroverted, generous and enjoys being the center of attention.



He's also lazy, interferes with everyone's business and has quite a big ego.

♍ VIRGO

8.23 ~ 9.22

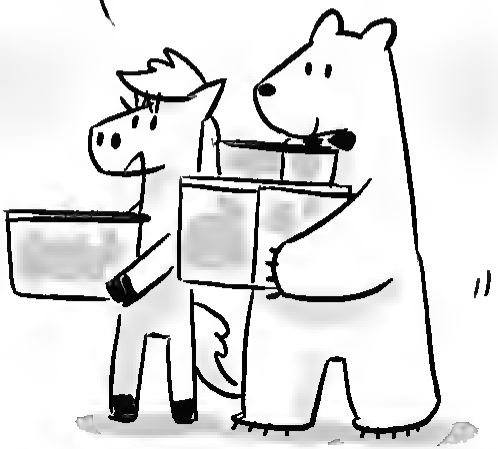
Horsie always does her job well, has great analytical skills and a pure heart.

Let's find more ways to help you and the planet!



I'm glad she put most of her critical skills into writing.

♎ LIBRA

9.23 ~ 10.22

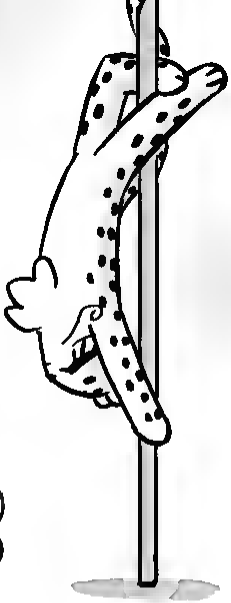
Doglas is sociable, peaceful and has a taste for elegance.

♏ SCORPIO

10.23 ~ 11.21

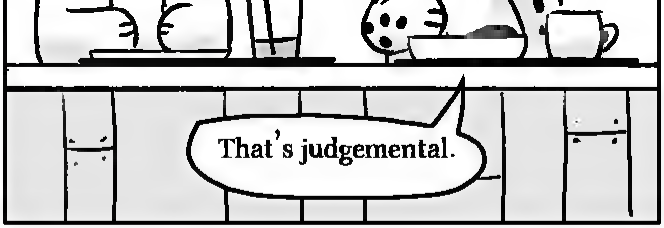
And you, Cheetah-B, is determined, powerful and magnetic!

TAP TAP



You are also full of mystery and intensity!

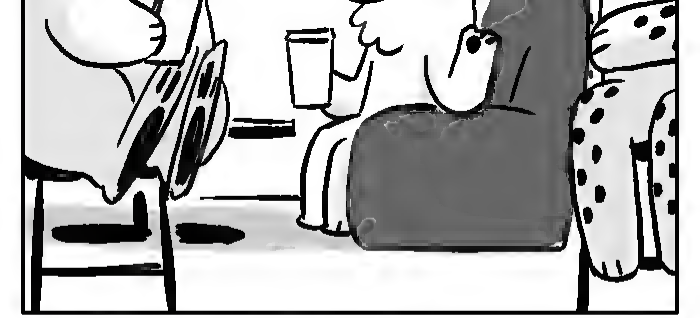
That's why I don't like signs.
You assume you know everything about someone just from knowing their sign.

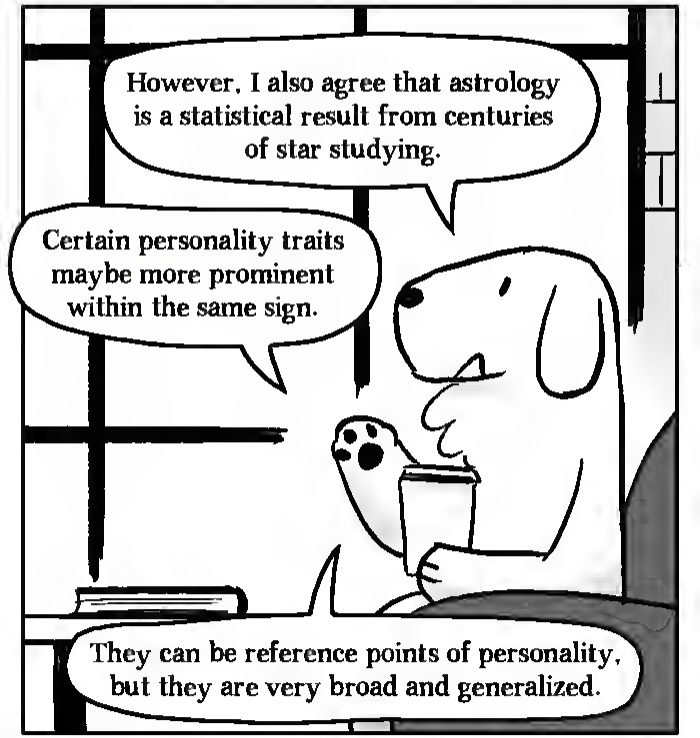


That's judgemental.

If I tell someone I'm Scorpio, they'll think I'm jealous and possessive.
But that's just stereotype.

Sorry for eavesdropping on your conversation,
but I agree with Cheetah-B to an extent.
Of course, there won't be only 12 types of animals in the world.
Every individual is unique.





However, I also agree that astrology is a statistical result from centuries of star studying.
Certain personality traits maybe more prominent within the same sign.
They can be reference points of personality, but they are very broad and generalized.

Fair enough.
Signs are not all useless.

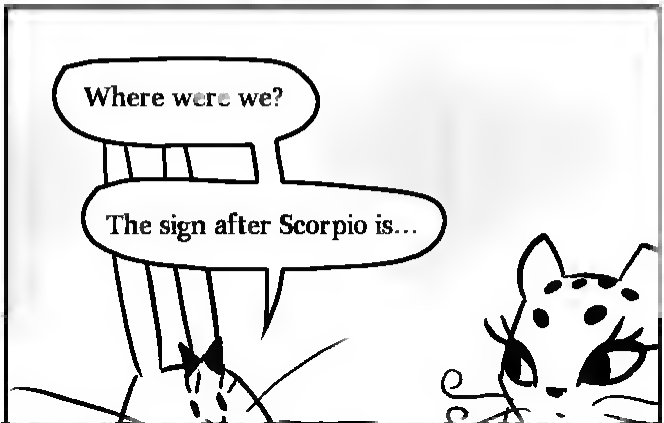
Oh - Tiffany haven't finished all the signs yet.
Please continue, sorry for interrupting.



Where were we?
The sign after Scorpio is...

SAGITTARIUS

11.22 ~ 12.21

Foxy is the most positive and optimistic one in RSJ.
He also loves freedom and travelling.

♑ CAPRICORN

12.22 ~ 1.19

Tiager is quiet and good-tempered.
He seems carefree about the little things but he's careful and devoted to his work.

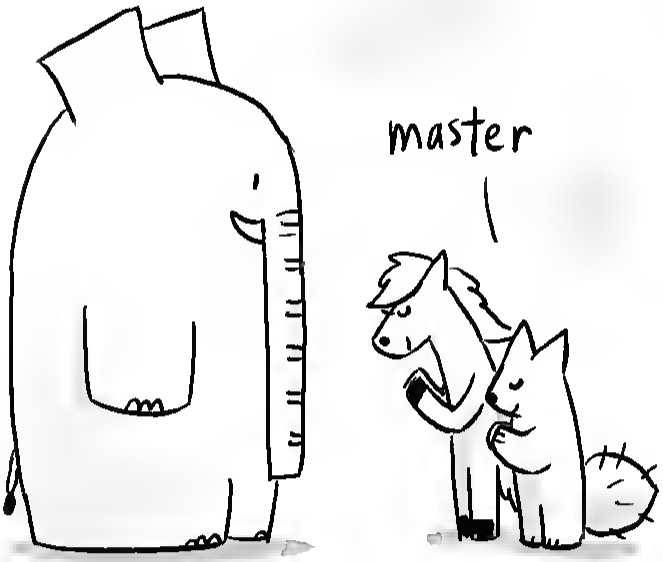
I'm so sorry!
It's fine

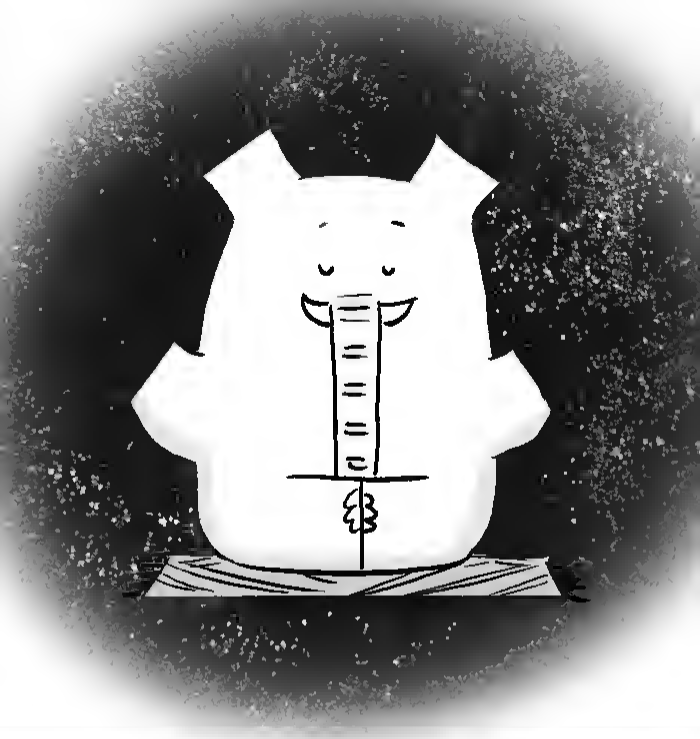
working mode
Bye Tiager!

AQUARIUS

1.20 ~ 2.18

Master Elephunk is intelligent, kind-hearted and has a unique view of the world.

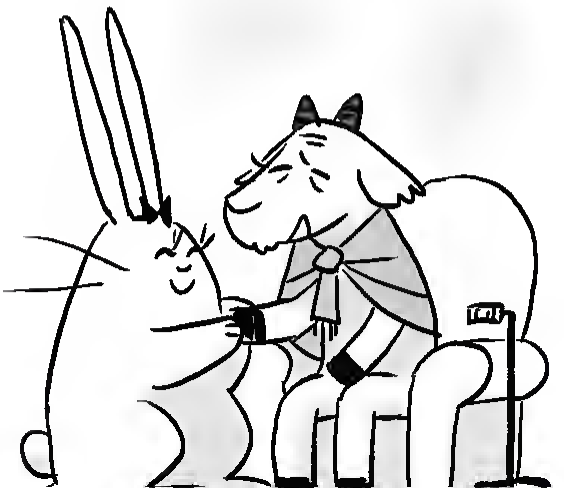




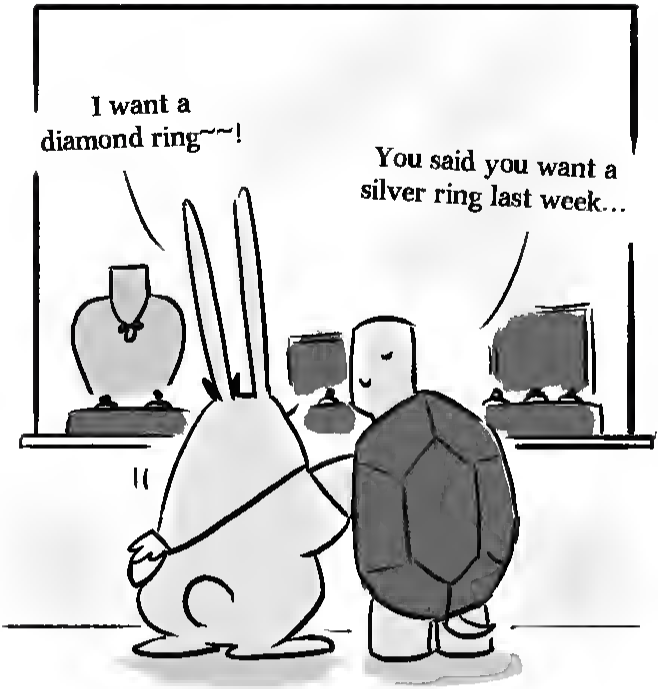
♓ PISCES

2.19 ~ 3.20

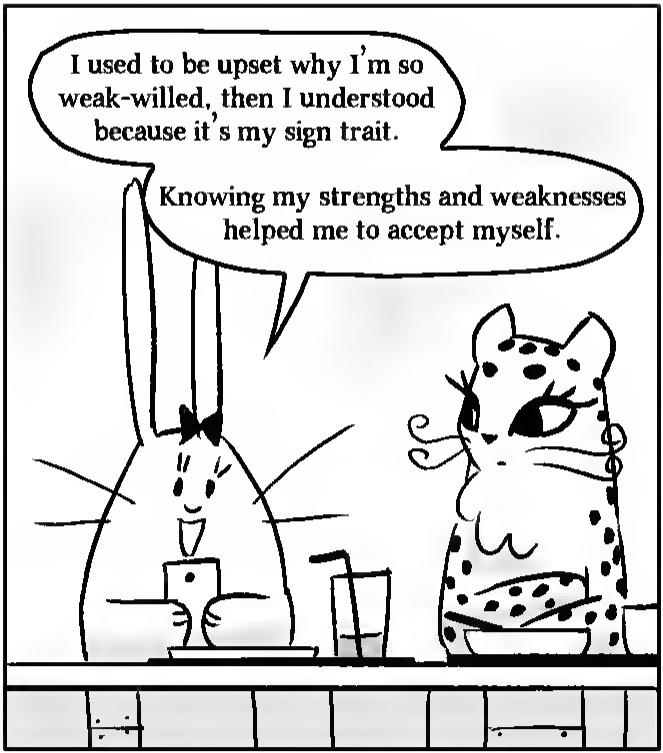
As a Pisces, I'm compassionate, imaginative and sensitive to emotions.



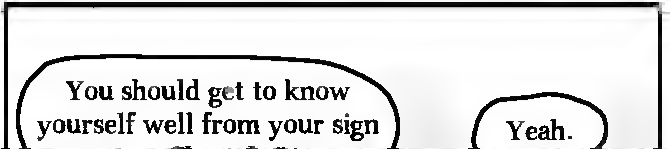
I also know I'm a bit too dreamy sometimes and I'm easily influenced.
Princess Tiffany



I want a diamond ring~~!
You said you want a silver ring last week...



I used to be upset why I'm so weak-willed, then I understood because it's my sign trait.
Knowing my strengths and weaknesses helped me to accept myself.



You should get to know yourself well from your sign Yeah.

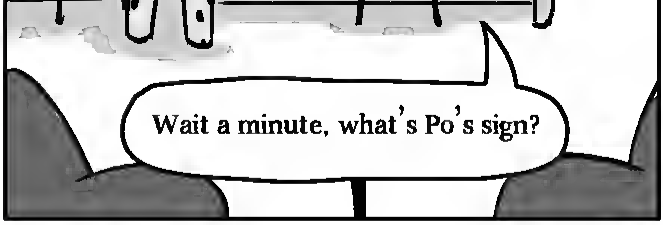
too, Cheetah-B!

Oh- I just realized the RSJ crew covers all the 12 zodiac signs!

That's amazing!



ROAR STREET JOURNAL

I don't want to believe in signs...
Leo and Scorpio makes a terrible match.
